It is with great pleasure that I present the logo design submissions for your consideration for the Iroquois School District Red Hawks. Voting will officially start on February 13th, but I encourage you to review the semi-finalists beforehand to help you determine your favorite.

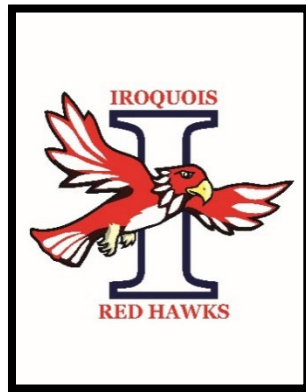

On Monday, February 6th, the Mascot Committee met to select the top logo designs to present to the community. Please keep in mind that these submissions are conceptual in nature and will require customization for reproducibility on items such as uniforms, letterhead, apparel, website design, and signage. The District has joined forces with BSN Sports to guarantee adherence to copyright laws and to establish exclusive ownership of the final product. All colors in the submissions will be adjusted to red, white, and blue for the final logo. Thirteen different logo designs are presented to the public for selection of the top five. After reviewing the submissions, it became apparent that there was a clear division point among the designs.

I extend my gratitude to all individuals who invested their time in creating the outstanding original logo designs. The committee was truly impressed by the talent and quality demonstrated in their submissions. Below, you will find the 13 logo designs for the first round of voting, which will commence on February 13th. The top five designs will advance to the final selection phase.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Douglas R. Scofield', is written over the printed name and title.

Douglas R. Scofield
Superintendent of Schools
